PRESS RELEASE:

Match #9

St. Lucia rebounds with straight sets victory over Saba

Road Town, Tortola. October 13, 2023.

-- St. Lucia recovered from a sluggish start and trading points with Saba to register a straight sets victory. The match nine (9) victory for St. Lucia, at the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) U23 Male Championship was their first of the tournament, putting their record to one win and won loss. Team Saba is now resigned to two losses.

The first set ended 25 15, after St. Lucia dominated the latter half of the set.

Saba played even more competitively in the second set, reaching both technical time-outs before St. Lucia, limiting St. Lucia's attacking options in the first half of that set. However, St. Lucia made several key substitutions to right the ship to close out the set at 25 20.

St. Lucia was more dominant in the third set, stringing together potent attacks to distance themselves from their opponent. The match ended with a cracking spike from St. Lucia, through the middle, 25 13.

Top scorer for the match was St. Lucia outside attacker Rio Jaden Victor with 16 points. Suedaiyer Pemberton was the top scorer Saba with 7 points

Coach Terry Verdant of St. Lucia indicated that he used the match against Saba to get some of his secondary players involved in the game but he admitted that he had to make some key substitutions to effectively close the game out.

Coach Patricio Bridgewater of Saba noted that he was content with the improved level of play from his team. He highlighted the need for continued work on maintaining leads at critical junctures but emphasized that this is part of the developmental stage of the team.

Saba next plays St. Kitts and Nevis later today (October 13) then St. Lucia plays St. Kitts and Nevis tomorrow morning, October 14.

Team St. Kitts and Nevis utilized tough and consistent float serves to gain the edge in the first set. The team registered seven aces in the first set, ensuring that the opponent remained off balance with their passing. The first set ended 25 to 16.

St. Kitts and Nevis pressed on with the tough serving and continued to stifle any strong resistance from Antigua and Barbuda. They also consolidated with a solid blocking presence at the net to end the set with a score of 25 to 15.

St. Kitts and Nevis maintained a high level of play into the third, while making line-up changes. The third set finished 25 13.

“Winning feels good and doing it efficiently is even more important. So we are going to prepare for our next match this afternoon,” captain Zendai Richards stated.

“Despite the loss, we are seeing improvements. However, we do need to clean up our serve receive,” captain Kemarni Joseph of Antigua and Barbuda said.

St. Kitts and Nevis play Saba later this afternoon (October 13). Antigua and Barbuda engage St. Vincent and the Grenadines this evening.

Marshall Leone. He was also the top scorer of the game with 15 points.

St. Maarten remained disciplined to their strategy keeping Dominica off balance with good serves. They also capitalized on several unforced errors at key moments to win the first set 25 to 22.

Dominica responded in the second set with a furious start, jumping out to a ten (10) to one lead and giving no leeway to St. Maarten for recovery. The set ended with St. Maarten serving into the net for Dominica to wrap things up with a 25 to 13 score.

Dominica continued with the momentum into the third set and countered St. Maarten's resistance. Despite some anxious moments in the last part of the set to secure it 25 to 19.

Both teams traded points in the fourth set; St. Maarten desperately trying to prolong the game and Dominica working to wrap up the match. An errant serve by Team St. Maarten sealed victory for Dominica, 25 20.

"We didn't play with our usual high energy and it showed but we are still very grateful for the victory," captain Keaun Reeve admitted.

"We are still aiming to secure a top two spot in our group and advance out of pool play," St. Maarten captain Rajheem Meulens indicated.

Dominica play Anguilla tomorrow morning, October 14, and St. Maarten (2 wins and 1 loss) play host British Virgin Islands in the evening.

Match #12

Third victory for St. Kitts and Nevis, without conceding a set

Road Town, Tortola. October 13, 2023. - St. Kitts and Nevis have secured their third win at the ECVA U23 Male Championship. The win in match 12 of the championship, also guarantees their advancing out of pool play. Victory came at the expense of Saba. It also means that St. Kitts and Nevis have won all their matches (pool A) without conceding a set. On the flip side, Saba are still seeking their first victory.

Elkreen Morton was the top scorer for St. Kitts and Nevis with eleven (11) points, inclusive of nine (9) aces. Suedaiyer Pemberton had eight (8) points for Saba.

Tough serving was once again the standout feature for St. Kitts and Nevis. The team combined for an impressive twenty-four (24) aces, unnerving the Saba players, en route to the win.

The flat tough serves were complemented by effective attacks from various parts of the court. The first set ended with a score of 25 7.

The serving barrage continued into the second set but Saba made some adjustments and fought formidably, even countering with some tough serves of their own. However, St. Kitts and Nevis were too strong in the end; claiming the set 25 21.

The St. Kitts and Nevis attack was relentless, right through the third set and the match ended with a flurry of aces; 25 14.

Coach Rick Swan emphasized the importance efficient play, especially when the game schedule is loaded.

Captain of Saba team Jalen Robinson indicated that he saw spurts of commendable play from his team and noted that they are using the tournament as tool for development.

St. Kitts and Nevis play St. Lucia tomorrow morning, October 14, while Saba face St. Vincent and the Grenadines immediately after.

Top scorer of the match was Jamal Collins, who tallied 17 points.

Grenada sped out to an early lead in the first set and never looked back. The British Virgin Islands made several attempts to level the scores but Grenada held firm to claim a 25 17 first set.

Spurred on by a boisterous home crowd, the British Virgin Islands fought doggedly and stayed neck and neck with their opponent. They sealed a hotly contested second set, 26 24, with a massive block from their captain Panchoo.

Grenada regrouped and disrupted the rhythm of the host and made two crucial stops to secure the third set 25 22.

The British Virgin Islands surprised Grenada with their aggression in the fourth set and quickly extended the scoreline. Their reward was a 25 16 set win.

An emotional captain Panchoo said his team was delighted to have won their second match of the tournament. He praised his teammates for their resilience and said he looked forward to their next match.

Grenada's captain Jabarie Collins noted that it was a heart-wrenching loss but he was proud of his team's fight, particularly willing themselves on despite the overwhelming support for the home side.

Grenada play Anguilla tomorrow, October 14, and the British Virgin Islands play St. Maarten, right after.
