 ST. JOHN'S, ANTIGUA & BARBUDA

Antigua beat Grenada in cracker-jacker

ST JOHN'S, Antigua and Barbuda, October 19, 2024: On occasions, both teams drew level of points and exchanged leads; they alternated winning sets, but it was Antigua and Barbuda that trumped over Grenada in five- set cracker- jacker, in match six of 2024 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Women's Tournament here at the YMCA Sports Complex.

In an edge of the seat encounter, Antigua and Barbuda prevailed 3-2(18-25, 25-18, 20-25, 25-20, 15-10).

Antigua and Barbuda was indebted to the crowd support that rallied around them when the chips were down, as Grenada clawed back ever so often in the contest.

However, the two teams were guilty of incurring errors at critical points of the match, gifting advantage to each other.

Antigua and Barbuda thus, after two matches is unbeaten, while Grenada remained winless, also after the same number of outings.

Following the nerve wracking, energy sapping match, Olsen Joseph, the triumphant coach on the night, said that nerves on the part of the younger players, allowed Grenada back in the match.

“The younger players that we have, the nerves got the better of them as they tried not to make any mistakes and that caused them to make mistakes”, Joseph opined.

Meanwhile, Rosemarie Simon, Captain and Libero of the Antigua and Barbuda team commented, “We did not expect to play five sets, but the mode of the game changed... I think we weren't settled enough, then we (eventually) found our footing, and tried to work together as a team”.

Simon said that they will be drawing on the match as a fillip to condition themselves to go to five sets, so “we can know what the strengths and weaknesses are, with the combinations we have”.

Match number seven features Bermuda and Anguilla.

Bermuda upstages St Lucia in epic five- setter

ST JOHN'S, Antigua and Barbuda, October 19, 2024: In a match that had all the elements of a true duel, Bermuda came from set down to register an epic win over pre – championships favourites St Lucia.

When the last ball dropped, it was Bermuda that had improved their status with a 3-2 (15-25, 25-19, 18-25, 25-21, 15-9) win in the 2024 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Women's Championships here at the YMCA Sports Complex.

The win put the Bermudians to a 2: 0 win/ loss ratio in the six- team championships, whilst St Lucia goes 1:1.

The humdinger of a contest, saw both teams not giving much, neither asked for any benevolences, fighting tooth and nail, to gain ascendancy and supremacy.

Bermuda's Head Coach- Shalae Rae, who was smiling from ear to ear, in a post- match remarked: "Nothing like a win that you really had to work for ...We came in pretty blind, but watched the warm up and adjusting the game as we went along".

Rae added, "We had a team that was really, really tired... St Lucia was giving us a run for our money, they had big blocks, strong attacks and we had to adjust and when they scored points they earned those points, so it was our job to clean up our mistakes, clean up our serves and we also had to make some strategic adjustments".

Rae thought that the timely insertion of 15- year-old Olivia Gazzard, a setter, was one of the turning points of the match to their advantage.

Delighted with the historic win, Bermuda's Captain- Kaylee Trott said of team mates, "They held their ground and were able to get back up out of our rot fast after that first set and am really proud of them ...We plan to keep the same momentum for the rest of the championships".

Contrarily, the countenance of St Lucia Head Coach- Kendell Charlery was glum.

A disappointed Charlery apportioned blame on the defeat to "a procession of errors" on his team's part.

"Defensive errors cost us many points at crucial times in the game...The game exposed may areas that we need to tighten up on moving forward in the competition".

Whilst congratulating Bermuda on a “job well done”, St Lucia’s Captain- Cindy Wilson “We played our game very slowly... At times we became very complacent but we look forward to do a better job in our upcoming games”.

The championships continue Grenada facing Antigua and Barbuda.

Bermuda registers third win to stay unbeaten

ST JOHN’S, Antigua and Barbuda, October 19, 2024: Bermuda again showed why they are have emerged as one of the favourites to go all the way in the 2024 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Women’s Tournament here at the YMCA Sports Complex.

A straightforward 3-0(25-17, 25-16, 25 -21) over Anguilla, left Bermuda perfect from three matches, and in pole position for one of the two top places at the end of the preliminaries.

On the other hand, Anguilla, after three matches has a solitary win, but has conceded twice.

Smarting after their hard- fought win over St Lucia in their previous match, the Bermudans were all round better than their opponents, showing prowess and poise especially whenever Anguilla sought to take the upper hand.

The overall effort of the Bermuda team, pleased their Head Coach- Shalae Rae.

“We keep positioning ourselves well... We came here wanting to win and that hasn’t change and having a three- nil record can only help us going into the final games”, Rae stated.

Despite the win, Bermuda’s Captain- Kaylee Trott said there were some anxious moments.

“We were not playing our true game at the beginning... It took a little while to find our footing and when we found it, we were in a groove and we are hoping to start next game right off the bat, playing our game”, Trott related.

Losing Coach of Anguilla- Jason Liburd, thumbed, “passing” and “setting”, for his team’s demise.

“We had issues passing... The setting was (also) really the problem why we couldn’t really get over the hump, but not being able to fix the passing in the situation, was our downfall”, Liburd bemoaned.

A dejected Anguilla's Captain Rikiesha Leveret, acknowledged that losing the match, left her "down".

This as she felt, "I feel we could have played a better game... We just needed the passes and that's a crucial part of the game... To get the passes up to get the play going; if there are no passes, there is no play".

Despite the disconsolateness, Leveret still has faith in her players, to rebound in the remaining matches.

Match eight pits Antigua and Barbuda against St Maarten.

Antigua and Barbuda maintain winning ways

ST JOHN'S, Antigua and Barbuda, October 20, 2024: Antigua and Barbuda extended their unbeaten run, but not without a bump on the way in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Women's Tournament here at the YMCA Sports Complex.

Facing the ever- improving St Maarten team, the Antiguanas had to dig deep at times to eke out the 3-1 (25-21, 25-23, 23-25, 25-14) win.

In the process, Antigua and Barbuda notched up their third successive win, joining Bermuda who also has three wins.

On the other side of the court, it was St Maarten's third straight defeat, but had the consolation of winning their first set.

Antigua and Barbuda's success thus far, was embraced by Head Coach Olsen Joseph, although cautioning that it was "one match at a time".

In his assessment of the win, Joseph admitted: "This one was a bit challenging because one of my main players that I would have come in as a sub, got injured before coming to the court, so I had to mix and match".

Joseph is riding the positives coming from the three wins, hoping that the momentum will take them to the title match.

Not disgraced by his team's string of losses, St Maarten's Head Coach- Dimitri Beauperthuy, lauded his charges for their continued improvements.

“I am extremely proud of the performance... This is what I expected from the team... I believe in the first and second sets, we missed the opportunity based on our service”.

Likewise in high spirit was St Maarten’s Captain- Chelsey Augustine, who said, “I am pleased how my team mates came out; I mean really came out, when they really needed to”.

Augustine strongly holds the view that the continued improvements in the championships shown by the team, augurs well for the sport of Volleyball in St Maarten.

Next up, Grenada and Anguilla meet in Match nine.
