 ST. JOHN'S, ANTIGUA & BARBUDA

Grenada earns first win

ST JOHN'S, Antigua and Barbuda, October 20, 2024: A rejuvenated Grenada team was in a no-nonsense mood when they faced off against Anguilla in match nine of the 2024 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Women's Championships here at the YMCA Sports Complex.

Bent on making amends for their two previous defeats, Grenada was switched on from the first whistle, and at the close of the match, was celebrating their 3-0 (25-16, 25-9, 25-19) win.

Grenada's attacks and defences could not be matched by the Anguillans.

The win for Grenada was welcomed by their Coach- Raphael Brathwaite and Outside Hitter-Thornia Mitchell.

For Brathwaite, he owes the win to his team being well rested and putting behind the losses in their two previous matches.

"We had a very good game against Antigua and

As a team we had one motive so we came here with the motivation to win... We came to execute and we executed

Personally for Mitchell, who was a standout in the match, joined in Brathwaite's assessment of the team being well rested, hence their output against the Anguillans.

Bermuda marches on

ST JOHN'S, Antigua and Barbuda, October 20, 2024: Bermuda shut out the cacophony of noise and the shenanigans and focused on what was before them on the court, to beat Antigua and Barbuda 3-1(25-20, 25-23, 21-25, 25-16) in the 2024 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Women's Championships here at the YMCA Sports Complex.

In a clash of the two unbeaten teams, as this was reflected in the competitive nature of the first three sets, before Bermuda closed out the contest in the fourth.

Hence, Bermuda marched to their fourth straight win, and with a match in hand, has all but book a place in the final.

 ST. JOHNS, ANTIGUA & BARBUDA

Revealing that they were well prepared for what the Antiguan had to throw at them, Bermuda's Head Coach- Shalae Rae, in an expression of accomplishment, said, "The mood is ecstatic... We know Antigua was the team to beat... We prepared for it and we are thrilled that we pulled it off".

She shared that they were mentally prepared for the battle, given the home support for the Antiguan.

"We had a lot of team talk... We talked about strategies to overcome the crowd... There is going to be heckles. It is gonna loud ... It is gonna be annoying ... We need to overcome that, bring your energy to overcome that", Rae related.

Joining Rae in assessing the big effort by the Bermudans was team Captain- Kaylee Trott, who confirmed: "We didn't think it will be easy by any means ... We had to make a big effort to keep our energy up... Our bench really helped with that".

On the other hand, reviewing his team's first loss, Antigua and Barbuda's Head Coach- Olsen Joseph summed up, "It was a little hard one ... It was a lot of mistakes on our end, we need to work on improving that".

Joseph disclosed that although they had strategized against the technically strong Bermuda team, they were not able to execute as planned.

"We tried to put the taller blockers on the main attackers but we were not to get it stop", the Antigua and Barbuda Head Coach conceded.

For Rosemarie Simon, the Antigua and Barbuda Captain: "I am a little disappointed that we lost the game ... I have seen Bermuda play throughout the tournament and I know that they are a technically inclined team, so I knew it would have been a fight but I knew that our team could have played a little bit better".

A confident Simon believes her team can and will rebound in their remaining matches.

Match eleven involves St Lucia and St Maarten.

St Lucia returns to winning ways

ST JOHN'S, Antigua and Barbuda, October 20, 2024: A 3-0 (25-15, 25-13, 25-17) win over St Maarten saw St Lucia returning to winning ways in the 2024 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Women's Championships here at the YMCA Sports Complex.

After faltering against Bermuda in their previous encounter, St Lucia showed intent that they want to be in the title decider, as they pulled out all the stops against St Maarten.

St Lucia, with two matches in hand, has two wins and a loss, while St Maarten is without out a win from their four matches.

Cindy Wilson, St Lucia's Captain, was happy that her team was able to rebound and win comfortably against the St Maarten team, citing better composure as the key for their success.

 ST. JOHNS, ANTIGUA & BARBUDA

“We were a bit more composed... We know what we are coming into, so we know every game we have to be prepared”, Wilson expounded.

Knowing that they are in a must win situation for their remaining two matches, Wilson admitted, “We are not going to underestimate any team”.

Whilst, the St Lucia camp thought it was their composure that saw them through, for St Maarten, it was the total opposite, according to their Head Coach and Captain.

St Maarten’s Head Coach- Dimitri Beauperthuy, in his assessment of the match said, “We played really timid in the beginning, but I love the way we fought in the end and I do hope in our match against Grenada, we start with that energy”.

Supporting her coach’s view, Captain- Chelsey Augustine concurred, “It was timidness, it was nervousness... The fact that we had to play hard and this is a tough team as well, but I feel that we give them the better hand, yes, we know they are good, but we didn’t put our best foot forward”.

The next match in the championships features St Maarten versus Grenada.
