Exciting action on Day One of ECVA Senior Women's Beach Championships

CUL- DE- SAC, St Lucia, May 2, 2025:

The sunbaked venue did not deter the women from giving it their all on day one of the 2025 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Beach Volleyball Championships here at the Cul de Sac Bay.

At the end of the day's high energy action, the winners of Pool C and D, were determined.

Topping Pool C was Dominica's Joeanna Pascal and Zahidu Henry, who defeated Grenada's duo of Teasis Jones and Sienna Dominique 2-0 (21-15, 21-10) and won on forfeiture from Marie Therese St Clair and Kurtrice Jules of St Lucia.

Meanwhile, Pool D was championed by the St Lucia's Kerin Neptune and Erica Gaspard.

They recorded a 2-1 (15-21, 21-18, 15-9) win over Antigua and Barbuda's Jassania Joseph and Rayana Regis. Neptune and Gaspard then defeated Hailey Moss and Megan Hands of Bermuda, 2-0(21-13, 21-19).

Also on day one, in Pool A, St Lucia's Denila Prospere and Chenoa Evans trumped 2-0(21-16, 21-10) over Anguilla's Lavesha Richardson and Deandre Fleming.

This, after Richardson and Fleming had overcome St Vincent and the Grenadines' Nikita Campbell and Veronique Matthews, 2-1 (11-21, 21-16, 15-4).

In Pool B, there were wins for St Lucia and Grenada.

The St Lucian combination of Tenayestigni Joseph and Clio Phillip defeated St Kitts and Nevis' Shajunee Gumbs and Shanicia Dyer 2-1(21-15, 18-21, 15-12).

Likewise, Grenada's Thornia Mitchell and Renisha Stafford beat Gumbs and Dyer 2-1(13-21, 21-18, 15-8).

Pool A and B winners will be decided on day two. In Pool A, Prospere/ Evans meet Campbell, with Mitchell and Stafford facing Joseph and Phillip in Pool D decider.

The other preliminary match on day two features Moss/ Hands versus Joseph/ Regis, as Pool D closes off.

Following the completion of the preliminary matches, the play off takes place to determine the match ups in the quarter finals against the winners of the four pools.
