Four teams reach for ECVA Men's Beach glory

CUL- DE- SAC, May 3, 2025: St Lucia Team One faces St Kitts and Nevis; Dominica Team Two faces Bermuda in the semi-finals of the Men's segment of the 2025 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Beach Volleyball Championship here at the Cul- de-Sac Bay.

The four teams chasing the glory to the coveted title, advanced after quarter-final wins that highlighted Day Two.

Joseph Clercent/ Sheldon Descartes-LCA One defeated Ronaldo

Franklyn/ Shadron Delpesche (VIN) 2-0(21-16, 21-18), while Bristol/Pencheon (SKN) beat Robinson/ Florent- DMA – One, 2-1(21-12, 20-22, 15-9).

Meanwhile, Mingo/ Frederick- DMA – Two saw off Grenada One's Oxford/ Nelson, 2-0(21-16, 21-18)

And, Bermuda's Benjamin Barnett/ Sean Tucker had a 2-0(21-10, 21-18) over Grenada Two's Zerick Walcott/ Kibose Hamilton.

Heading into the semi-finals, all teams expressed confidence of advancing.

Clercent: "We are confident of getting past St Kitts. They are playing well, but we believe we can overcome them."

Pencheon: "We are happy to reach this far; we have improved as the championship went on. In the semi-finals, we are going to give it our best shot."

Frederick: "We have been improving game after game. We have been training hard for the past months for this, and it is now to show what we have."

Barnett: "We put it together against Grenada and we are going to go into the semi-finals with the same intensity. We are very focused on playing our game, allowing us to dictate the match."

Women have all to play on Day three of EVCA Beach Championship

CUL- DE- SAC, May 3, 2025: It is all for the four teams to play for, as they bid to be crowned winners of the Women's segment of the 2025 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Beach Volleyball Championship here at the Cul- de- Sac Bay.

This after they forged triumphs on day two, getting past their opponents in the quarter finals.

As such, the St Kitts and Nevis outfit of Shajunee Gumbs/ Shanicia Dyer beat St Lucia Team One, comprising Denila Prospere/ Chenoa Evans 2-1(13-21, 21-19, 15-10)

Also advancing to the last four was Grenada Team One of

Thornia Mitchell/ Renisha Stafford, who overcame Antigua and Barbuda's Jassania Joseph/ Dana Regis, 2-0(21-15, 21-18)

Joining them was the Bermuda pair of Hailey Moss/ Megan Hands, who stopped Dominica's Joyan Pascal/ Zahidu Henry 2-0(21-18, 21-13).

And St Lucia's Team Three of Clio Phillip/ Tenayestlni Joseph ousted the St Lucia Team Four of Kerin Neptune/ Ericka Gaspard, 2-1(6-21, 21-12, 15-13).

Thus, the semi-finals pit Gumbs/ Dyer versus Phillip/ Joseph and Mitchell/ Stafford against Moss/ Hands.

Looking ahead of the semifinals, the teams commented.

Gumbs: "We are really excited to be in the semi-finals and showcase our talents and represent as best as we can."

Mitchell: "Our intention is to retain the title; that is the motive for coming here and that is what exactly we are going to do."

Joseph: "It is bitter – sweet to beat our fellow St Lucians. We have to represent, because we are the only team in the women's category to have a chance at the title."

Moss: "We are glad the way we have progressed throughout the tournament, and we are happy to play in the semi-finals."
