St Lucia continues bossing of ECVA Men's Beach Volleyball

CUL- DE- SAC, St Lucia, May 4, 2025:

St. Lucia's durable duo of Joseph Clercent and Sheldon Descartes has championed the 2025 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Beach Volleyball Championship here at the Cul- de- Sac Bay.

A come from behind, 2-1 (18-21, 21-16, 15-8) win over Bermuda's Benjamin Barnett and Sean Tucker, gave Clercent and Descartes, their third straight lien on the title.

The finalists emerged from the semi-finals in contrasting styles over their opponents.

Clercent/ Descartes beat St Kitts and Nevis' Bristol /Pencheon 2-1(18-21, 21-16, 15-8), while Barnett/ Tucker outlasted Mervin Mingo and Bill Frederick of Dominica Two, 2-0 (32-30, 21-16).

Third Place

The pair of Bristol/ Pencheon went on to secure third place, by defeating Mingo/ Frederick 2-1(21-19, 10-21, 15-11), to secure bronze for their country.

Reflecting on their continued success in the championships, Joseph said, "It is an honour to win again, because we put in the work, and in order to get the results, you have to put in the work. I am glad that the youngsters want to challenge us and that is good for the sport in this region".

On behalf of silver medallist – Bermuda, Tucker expressed delight in at least being ranked in the top two of the championships.

"It is deflating to lose in the gold medal match. We really wanted but second is big for Bermuda in general and we are really proud how we performed. Coming up against the home country, back-to-back champions in the final, they gave us a big challenge, and ended up prevailing, as they are a very skilful team".

St Kitts and Nevis crowned queens in Senior ECVA Beach

CUL- DE- SAC, St Lucia, May 4, 2025:

The St Kitts and Nevis combination of Shajunee Gumbs and Shanicia Dyer have championed the Women's segment of the 2025 Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Senior Beach Volleyball Championship here at the Cul- de- Sac Bay.

Gumbs and Dyer registered a 2-0 (21-14, 22-20) win over Bermuda's Hailey Moss and Megan Hands in the gold medal match.

Before facing off in the final, Gumbs/ Dyer had overcome Clio Phillip/ Tenayestlni Joseph of St Lucia Team Three 2-0(21-15, 21-18), while Moss/ Hands ensured that there will be a new champion, by defeating Grenada Team One of Thornia Mitchell/ Renisha Stafford, 2-0(26-24, 21-15).

However, Mitchell/ Stafford did not leave empty handed, as they get the better of Phillip/ Joseph, 2-0, 22-20, 21-13, to claim the bronze.

Elated on the country's triumph, Dyer said: "I am very, very happy for the win, more so my partner, who is relatively new to Beach Volleyball. It is more gratifying as we learned each other's style of play along the way".

"We did not win any of our matches in the pool round, but we kept saying that since we can win a set, we can win a match, and we went unbeaten from the Round of 12, straight to the final".

Magnanimous in their defeat, both Moss/ Hands believed that they are better players, after the three days of competing in the championship.

Moss thus summed up, "We are proud of how we played and our improvement throughout the Championships. After all, it is an improvement from last year's showing. We gained a lot of experience, especially how to lift ourselves from the low points"
